BONUS 6 STUD POKER

II VERSION

PROCEDURE MANUAL

SUBJECT: GAME OVERVIEW

Bonus 6 Stud Poker is a variation of a standard poker game that is played on a blackjack style table. All players may play up to a four-card hand along with one community card to create a five-card poker hand. Winning hands will begin with a pair of sixes through the Royal Flush.

The Insurance fee on Bonus 6 must be placed prior to the initial deal, and is the same as the ante. This "Fee" will allow the player to automatically receive a "6th" card if they do not have a winning hand in the first 5 card sequence to game. Only non-winning hands can receive this card and only if they have paid the insurance fee.

SUBJECT: OPENING PROCEDURE

1. Bonus 6 will be dealt with one 52 card deck,
2. The deck will be inspected for completeness on the front or face. The back of the deck will be inspected for any marks, blemishes, imperfections and company logo.
3. The deck will be thoroughly washed, shuffled and cut prior to the start of play.
4. In the event of a dead game, the cards will be spread face down on the table in front of the dealer. Should a shuffle machine be used, one deck will remain in the shuffler and the second deck will be spread face down in front of the dealer.

procedures

SUBJECT: SHUFFLE PROCEDURE

1. All cards will be removed from the discard rack or picked up from a dead spread.

2. The deck will be riffled twice.
3. The deck will be stripped 4 to 5 times.
4. The deck will be riffled once.
5. The dealer will cut the deck. The yellow card will be placed on the game. The dealer will cut at least 10 cards from either the top or bottom of the deck and place them on the cut card. The remaining cards will be picked up and placed on the top of the deck.

SUBJECT: DEALING PROCEDURE

2. After the initial deal has been completed, the dealer must verify the accuracy of the burn and card delivery. Once completed, the dealer will instruct the players to view their cards.
3. All subsequent cards will be delivered face down in front of each player betting area.

SUBJECT: DEALING THE GAME

Round one (Initial deal)

1. All players will be invited to place an ante bet and will be offered Insurance prior to the initial deal. Any player who has not taken insurance will be asked if they would like to do so, The "insurance fee" will be explained to the guest as necessary. Insurance may not be taken at any time after the first card is dealt.
2. Once all bets have been placed and the dealer announces "No More Bets" The dealer will burn the top card and begin the deal.
3. Each player will receive one card face down and the dealer will take one "Community card" face up. The Players will then receive a second card face down. The dealer will not receive any additional cards. This sequence can also be dealt with two cards down to the players, and the "community card" being dealt last.
4. The player will now decide to play or fold. To continue, the player must place a second bet equal to the ante bet. To fold, the player will throw in their cards. The dealer will verify the correct number of cards and will not expose the hand to the table. The dealer will collect all bets placed including the insurance fee. The cards will then be removed and placed in the discard rack.

procedures

Round Two

1. Prior to this deal "no more bets" will be announced. The remaining players will receive one additional card face down. All remaining players will now hold three cards.

2. The players will now decide to play or fold. To continue, the player must place a third bet equal to the ante bet. To fold, the player will throw in their cards. Procedure same as above.

Round Three

1. Prior to this deal "No More Bets" will be announced. The remaining players will each receive one additional card face down. Each remaining player will now hold four cards.
2. Any player holding a winning hand should be instructed to tuck their cards under the insurance fee. The insurance fee will be collected and put in the chip tray.
3. Any player who does not have a winning hand and did not take the insurance may throw in their hand. The dealer will spread the cards, face down and verify that all four cards are present. All bets will be collected and the cards will be placed in the discard rack. The player's hand will not be exposed to the table,

The Bonus Card

1. Starting clock-wise, the dealer will now check the hands of the remaining players. Those who don't have a winning hand and bought the insurance will automatically receive the 6th card. This card can be dealt either up or down, and the dealer can pay as he goes, or if the card is dealt down, go completely around and then start turning the card over counter-clock wise and paying.

Note: In Washington State the 6th card will be dealt down only and dealer will turn the card over . Proceed to Paying and Taking.

procedures

1. As per above, the dealer will begin exposing the player's hand (card down version) with the player on 3rd base. The cards will be exposed and the best poker hand will be identified. Winning hands will be paid according to the pay table. The cards will be collected and placed in the discard rack. The dealer will then continue to the next hand.
2. Upon identifying a non-winning hand, all bets will be collected and placed in the chip tray. The cards will then be collected and placed in the &-card rack. The dealer will then continue to the next hand.
3. Upon the completion of paying and taking, all players will be invited to place their bets for the next round of play. Insurance will be offered as described above.
4. The dealer will remove the deck from the discard rack and re-shuffle as described above.
